

ProLango Career Search Excellence Seminars

Are you looking for a new job with little to no success? Are you wondering why companies aren't responding to your applications?

Paul Anderson, nationally recognized expert on career transitions, is back in 2014 with a brand new seminar packed with only the hottest tips and tricks for professionals seeking a new opportunity. Redesigned from the ground up, this is one of his best seminars yet. In this 1-hour presentation, Paul will debunk popular interviewing myths, show you how your resume is scored in the employer's Applicant Tracking System (ATS), and so much more.

As part of your attendance, you will get an internet search computer script that can be used immediately to find 1000's of jobs you didn't even know existed.

Audience

Typical attendees are mid-career professionals-in-transition, executives and self-employed entrepreneurs attracted to cutting edge job search strategies that actually produce results. Professions are in a wide range such as law and accounting, finance, science, health care, information technology, software engineering, manufacturing, sales and marketing, technical writing, operations, and project management.

Since May 2009, ProLango has trained more than 15,000 professionals with cutting-edge job search strategies. We are the only local outplacement and career-transition company known for continually learning and sharing strategies that work as opposed to the cookie-cutter career advice found elsewhere.
