Workshops

The Power of Young People: A Model for Youth Led Program Evaluation
This workshop will be led by young people who are trained in program evaluation. They will share their model and experiences.

Joyce Lowery (World Vision: Design Monitoring and Evaluations Specialist, U.S. Programs)

Partners in Transformation: A Model for Service Learning
Participants will hear about a service learning model that highlights youth advocacy and civic engagement. (Led by a group of young people.)

Leonetta Eliabo (World Vision: Youth Development Specialist, U.S. Programs)

The Power of Story: A Tool for Youth Ministry
Participants will be given a framework to understand how to use the elements of story to help empower young people see their own lives as more connected to God than they may think.

Paul Fata (World Vision: Program Director, Seattle Education & Youth Development, U.S. Programs)

Geography of Grace: A Way of Seeing Where God Shows Up
An approach to incarnational youth ministry which helps participants locate the Good News in Hard Places.

Lina Thompson (World Vision: National Training Director, Field Operations, U.S. Programs)

Making the Tutoring/School Connection
Learn how to make important connections with your local schools that will help your tutoring program succeed.

TBA (The Salvation Army: Northwest Division)

Youth and Culture for the Emerging Youth Worker
The John Perkins Center at SPU presents an extended (three session) leadership workshop on youth and culture for the emerging youth worker.

Tali Reinstein (SPU: Director, The John Perkins Center for Reconciliation, Leadership Training and Community Development)

Developing Student Leaders
A look at how to create programs that effectively teach youth to apply biblical truths to their lives and reach their peers for Christ.

John Reid (Seattle Union Gospel Mission: High School Ministry Coordinator, Youth Reach Out Center)

Engaging the Whole Family in Your Children's Ministry
How to include ministry to families in your overall children's ministry strategy.

Nicole Anthony (Seattle Union Gospel Mission: Children's Ministry Coordinator, Youth Reach Out Center)

Reaching Unchurched Children: A Basic Approach
Participants will learn principles and techniques for reaching unchurched children for Christ and integrating them into existing programs without creating chaos.

Sonia Dobson (Scripture Union: Northeast Regional Director)

Teaching the Bible Creatively
Using the same methods of Jesus to help kids listen.

TJ Foltz (Scripture Union: Mid-Atlantic Regional Director)

Keynote Speaker

Lina Thompson

World Vision

- National Training Director
- Field Operations, U.S. Programs

Registration

To register, send the following form to

John Perkins Center: SPU
3307 Third Avenue West, Suite 207
Seattle, Washington 98119-1950

or go to

http://www.spu.edu/arise

Name ______________________________________
Address ____________________________________
___________________________________________
Phone __________________ Fax: _______________
e-mail ______________________________________
Church/Organization __________________________

Fee
$25 per person (meals included)

Payment method (do not include cash):

☐ Check/money order (payable to SPU)
☐ Mastercard ☐ Visa

Account # ___________________________________
Exp. Date ___________________________________
Signature ___________________________________
Printed name on card __________________________
Billing Address _______________________________
___________________________________________
___________________________________________

Location

The Salvation Army
Seattle White Center
Corps Community Center
9050 16th Avenue Southwest
Seattle, WA 98106