Summer 2010 Egypt Team Participants

Alexie Hoffman, Sam Henager, Joel Larson, and Kent Sieg

Host: Impact Middle-East

Students will observe and participate in ministries to children in villages outside Cairo, orphans and residents of Cairo’s garbage village. Educational opportunities include Cairo’s pyramids, Egyptian museum and Coptic and Islamic sections, as well as a tour of pyramids and historic sites at Luxor. Students will engage in dialogue with Christian and Muslim individuals to learn the impact of Islam, Judaism and Christianity on Egypt and the Middle East.

The approximate cost of the trip is $4500 per student. Funds raised through SPRINT will be used for airfare, visa, airport tax, travel health insurance, housing, food, training and debriefing, transportation within the host country, immunizations, and other activity and program expenses. Donations to SPRINT will not help to pay for tuition expenses; if donors would like to help with that expense they should contact the students directly. Students will be traveling from June 14 to July 5.

REGARDING DONATIONS: Contributions to Seattle Pacific University’s SPRINT teams are tax-deductible. Please make your check out to Seattle Pacific University and designate on the memo line which team you are supporting. In order to receive a tax-deductible receipt, please DO NOT include a student’s name anywhere on the check. Any funds received in excess of the needs of the student will cover the costs of other SPRINT participants. Please return the response card below along with your contribution to the address at left. It would benefit the student best if you could have your contribution in by June 1, although donations will be accepted throughout the trip’s duration.

Please detach and return.
