— SUMMER 2010 INDONESIA TEAM PARTICIPANTS —

Hannah Sherwood, Tia Strombeck, Chrissy Hughes, and Brianna Dawkins

The Indonesia team will live and serve on a chain of small islands near Sumatra. This team will begin their trip by spending a week in language and culture training, after which they will travel to the host organization’s facility on a nearby island.

This area of Indonesia is mainly Muslim, so a major focus of the trip will be learning about the culture of “folk Islam” in this region and learning how to interact and build bridges with Muslim individuals. The team will live with and learn from hosts and translators to develop a holistic understanding of ministry in the context of Indonesia.

The approximate cost of the trip is $3500 per student. Funds raised through SPRINT will be used for airfare, visa, airport tax, travel health insurance, housing, food, training and debriefing, transportation within the host country, immunizations, and other activity and program expenses. Students will be traveling from June 30 to August 1.

REGARDING DONATIONS: Contributions to Seattle Pacific University’s SPRINT teams are tax-deductible. Please make your check out to Seattle Pacific University and designate on the memo line which team you are supporting. In order to receive a tax-deductible receipt, please DO NOT include a student’s name anywhere on the check. Any funds received in excess of the needs of the student will cover the costs of other SPRINT participants. Please return the response card below along with your contribution to the address at left. It would benefit the student best if you could have your contribution in by June 1, although donations will be accepted throughout the trip’s duration.
