Summer 2010 India Team Participants —

Amy Selland, Kira Hendricksen, Natalie Hellman, Kate Jendersee, Karie Chamberlain, Carlie Mix, and Ashley Dyer

Host: Dalit Freedom Network

Throughout their time in India, students will be primarily involved with teaching in one of two nearby Dalit Education Centers (the Dalits are the “untouchables,” the no-class people at the very bottom of India’s social structure). Throughout the trip, members of the host organization will engage the team with cultural education experiences such as language lessons, discussion groups, city tours, and special meals. The team will leave with a better understanding of Indian culture, especially the plight of the Dalit people, who are denied most resources enjoyed by those in higher castes.

The approximate cost of the trip is $3000 per student. Funds raised through SPRINT will be used for airfare, visa, airport tax, travel health insurance, housing, food, training and debriefing, transportation within the host country, immunizations, and other activity and program expenses. Students will be traveling from June 21 to July 26.

Regarding Donations: Contributions to Seattle Pacific University’s SPRINT teams are tax-deductible. Please make your check out to Seattle Pacific University and designate on the memo line which team you are supporting. In order to receive a tax-deductible receipt, please DO NOT include a student’s name anywhere on the check. Any funds received in excess of the needs of the student will cover the costs of other SPRINT participants. Please return the response card below along with your contribution to the address at left. It would benefit the student best if you could have your contribution in by June 1, although donations will be accepted throughout the trip’s duration.
