

POLITICAL SCIENCE AND GEOGRAPHY NEWSLETTER

Vol. 5, No. 1

May, 2009

“Parties are fun if you go to the right ones”

News and Announcements

Well, after an unconscionably long absence, the much-missed and much-beloved Political Science and Geography Newsletter is back! Apologies from the editor. Again.

1. Perhaps the biggest news revolves around THE SENIOR BANQUET! This year's senior banquet will be held Wednesday evening, June 3, at 5:30 at the Queen Anne Masonic Center. The Masonic Center is located at 1608 4th Avenue West in upper Queen Anne. Please email the editor at rdavis@spu.edu if you have questions about this year's event.

For the menu, we have the Democrat option of meatless lasagna with garlic bread, salad and dessert. The Republic option consists of lasagna with meat, bread, salad and desert, while the Green party option is simply salad. Please specify Republican, Democrat or Green Party options.

All tickets are $12.00. Make your checks payable to “SPU Political Science Department” and slide your checks under Dr. Davis's door. This is an excellent date event. All reservations must be made by June 1.

Please note that the event is restricted to graduating seniors. Our space is very limited. However, we are looking for a few underclass students to help serve. If you can help out from 4:00-6:30 or for any of the time period, please email Dr. Davis, rdavis@spu.edu.

In other news:

2. Congratulations to Dr. Braden for another spectacularly success SPU Social Venture Competition.
3. A new club has formed in the department, namely, Dr. Henry's Pre-Law Club. For details, feel free to email Dr. Henry at henryc@spu.edu. This will be an excellent opportunity for those of you who think you might be interested in a legal career.

Bragabouts

Amy McNair recently won a Tony Blair Award from the Tony Blair Faith Foundation. Congratulations Amy!

Elizabeth Schaffer has been accepted into the graduate program at the University of Geneva in Switzerland for next fall.

Jenn Birch was recently awarded a Barnabas Servant Award.

Remember, stay abreast of Political Science and Geography events by checking in to our website! Mainly because this newsletter doesn't come out nearly as often as it should.
