SPU Young Alumni Council Scholarship

Are you an active volunteer in the Seattle community? Do you succeed academically? The Young Alumni Council of Seattle Pacific has established a scholarship for SPU seniors who have demonstrated academic achievement and a commitment to volunteer service off-campus. Scholarships will be awarded to students who excel in the classroom AND in the community.

Applications are due Wednesday, March 29th. Current juniors may apply by downloading the application at: http://advance.spu.edu/yac/docs/YAC%202006-07%20Scholarship%20Application.pdf.

Applications can also be found in the SFS office. If you have questions please contact Whitney Kruse at krusew@spu.edu.

ICW Scholarships

Independent Colleges of Washington scholarships are back. There are 7 scholarships available to students attending private colleges in Washington, and yes, that includes SPU!

Award amounts range from $850 to $2,500, depending on the scholarship. Applications for all these scholarships can be found in the SFS office located in lower Demaray.

All applications and materials are due to ICW by March 17, 2006. If you have questions please contact Whitney Kruse at krusew@spu.edu.

- Print & broadcast journalism,
- Television & radio production, film;
- Advertising, public relations, marketing, graphic design, multimedia design, photography or technical communication.

Applications can be found in the SFS office. All application materials and samples must be postmarked no later than February 16, 2006. If you have questions please contact Whitney Kruse at krusew@spu.edu.

Washington Association for Language Teaching Scholarships

The Washington Association for Language Teaching offers up to six $500 scholarships each year to Washington residents taking advanced world language courses at the university level. This award is merit based rather than need based.

To qualify, students must be a Washington resident enrolled in a 300-level or higher world language course for Fall 2005 at a Washington college or university.

Student must submit an application form, official transcript of college work, a short essay and a letter of recommendation from a world language teacher. Applications can be found at the SFS office. All application materials must be received by March 1, 2006. If you have questions please contact Whitney Kruse at krusew@spu.edu.

American Association of University Women (AAUW)

The Arlington-Stanwood branch of the AAUW is offering two $2,000 scholarships to residents of Arlington, Stanwood or Camano Island; or past graduates of Stanwood, Lakewood and Arlington High Schools.

These scholarships are available to both women and men who have completed at least two years of college or have completed two years by June 2006.

All application materials are due by March 31, 2006.
Sarah Soule Patton Scholarship for History Majors

The Washington State Society Daughters of the American Revolution are now accepting applications for the Sarah Soule Patton Scholarship available for history majors in their junior year. This is a one year $1,500 scholarship awarded for the 2006-2007 academic year.

This scholarship can only be awarded to college juniors majoring in history with an emphasis in United States history.

Eligibility to apply include: US citizenship, good character, scholastic excellence, and financial need.

All applications and materials should be postmarked by March 31, 2006.

Applications can be found in Student Financial Services. If you have questions please contact Whitney Kruse at krusew@spu.edu.

American Business Women’s Association

The ABWA scholarship is available to female residents of Clark County in Washington who have completed at least their freshman year at an accredited college.

Applicants must be a US citizen and a full time student.

Applications can be found in the SFS office located in lower Demaray and should be received no later than May 1, 2006.

If you have questions please contact Whitney Kruse at krusew@spu.edu.

Bob & Eleanor Grant Trust

The Bob & Eleanor Grant Trust provides scholarships for first-generation college students studying natural or environmental sciences. The Trust can provide scholarships of up to $15,000 per year that are renewable based upon satisfactory student progress. The priority of selection criteria is: 1) need 2) passion 3) merit. Students must be residents of King, Snohomish or Pierce County of Washington State for at least 24 months prior to applying, and must be at sophomore or junior status when applying.

Applications can be found in the SFS office located in lower Demaray. All application materials must be postmarked by March 18, 2006. If you have questions please contact Whitney Kruse at krusew@spu.edu.

“Happiness is an attitude. We either make ourselves miserable, or happy and strong. The amount of work is the same.”

Francesca Reigler

“work for something because it is good, not because it has a chance to succeed.”

Vaclav Havel

“We make a living by what we get, but we make a life by what we give.”
