

To Reserve a Room at Seattle Pacific University:

1. Go to roomfinder.spu.edu
2. Log-in with your SPU username and password. Click Log-in in the upper-left corner.
3. Go to the Reservations tab at the top of the page and select your appropriate reservation group. You may have one or more options. Notice: there are separate options for the Library, Upper Gwinn, and Royal Brougham. For all other locations, use Student Leader Requests if reserving for an organization, Student Club Requests if reserving for a club, or General Room Requests if you are requesting space for an event that is not related to a club or officially recognized student organization. Club events must be approved by CSC (Committee for Student Clubs) before you make a room reservation.
4. Fill in the appropriate event details on the left side of the page. The Availability Filters may help you narrow your selection, or you may leave them blank to see all available rooms in the selected building.
5. Click Find Space.
6. A grid will show you which rooms are available in the building you selected and which rooms have already been booked. The timeframe you selected will appear shaded on the grid.

The screenshot displays the room reservation interface. On the left, there are search filters under 'When and Where' (Date: 5/12/2014 Mon, Start Time: 3:30 PM, End Time: 5:15 PM), 'Facilities' (Weter Memorial Hall), and 'Setup Information' (Attendance: 12). The main area shows 'Selected Locations' with 'No rooms currently selected' and a 'Grid' view. The grid is for 'Monday, May 12, 2014' and shows a 10-hour timeline. Rooms listed include 201 Classroom, 202 Classroom, Lower Weter Large Conference Room, and Staff Lounge. Bookings are shown as blue blocks with labels like 'UFDN-3', 'THEO-3', 'UCOR-3', 'UC Sl', 'UC w', 'Private', 'Meeting (Futu', and 'Weekly Meetings (Link'.

7. For more room information, click on the name of the room. Select the space you would like to use by clicking on the plus sign  next to the room name. Click Continue.
8. Fill in the event details. Select the group that applies to this reservation and find your name in the next dropdown box. When you have filled in all the information on the page, click Submit. You will receive an e-mail that your request has been received.
9. You can track the status of your reservation or make changes by clicking on View My Requests under the Reservations tab.
10. Be patient. You will receive another e-mail once your reservation has been approved.
