Live and Teach in Saudi Arabia

ABOUT THE POSITION

Q. What is the salary?
A. You will be paid a better than competitive salary for ESL teachers in Saudi Arabia.

Q. What does the job entail?
A. The position entails teaching English as a foreign language to Saudi college students.

Q. How long is the commitment?
A. Teachers must commit to teach 2 consecutive 21 week sessions in a 12 month period, starting at the end of September 2010.

Q. What are the qualifications?
A. You must have a bachelor’s degree and be a native speaker of English.

Q. What if I do not have all the qualifications?
A. If you have a degree, but lack EFL / ESL experience or certification, we may have a limited number of positions available whereby you will be given the opportunity to gain the necessary credentials to teach.

ABOUT LIVING IN SAUDI ARABIA

Q. What is it like living in Saudi Arabia?
A. The urban centers are modern, beautiful cities with attractive housing, transportation and public services. The climate is warm-to-hot. Westerners can live and dress in their normal way, but must be sensitive to the modest customs of a Muslim culture. For example, dress must be modest in public. The citizens are warm, welcoming and very used to Westerners living and working among them.

Q. What about safety?
A. The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is one of the safest places in the world and is virtually crime-free.
ABOUT THE BENEFITS

Q. What about health care?
A. You will receive a complete health insurance plan that covers all routine and urgent care services during your employment.

Q. What about travel?
A. You will receive paid transportation to and from your current location once per year.

Q. Where will I live?
A. You will live in secure and high quality housing. All rent and utilities are included as part of the benefit package.

Q. What about taxes?
A. There is no personal income tax in Saudi Arabia, and US citizens can earn to $84,000 per year without being obligated to pay income tax in the US. Of course, you should check this with your own tax advisor.

JOB DESCRIPTION

We are seeking a teacher/lecturer with a sense of adventure to teach English as a second language to college students in Saudi Arabia. If you have ESL teaching experience, and English is your primary language, we offer a tax-free compensation package that includes salary, transportation, high quality living accommodations, a complete health care package, and paid vacation. You must be eligible for a passport and be able to reside in Saudi Arabia for two 21 week teaching assignments in the academic year 2010-2011. The first assignment begins in late September, 2010. We pay all travel expenses to and from Saudi Arabia. There also will be significant opportunity for advancement in our organization for both administrative and curriculum development positions.

Other benefits:

- Transportation from housing facilities to colleges
- Two-way air ticket from the US to Saudi Arabia

HOW TO APPLY:

Please send cover letter, CV, and three references to:

jobs-english@americanhighered.com