

Ames Scholarship Application

In 2001, former CEO of MediaOne International Gary Ames and his wife, Barbara, gave a $1 million gift to Seattle Pacific University to be distributed in scholarships over a period of 10 years. In keeping with Seattle Pacific President Philip Eaton's desire for the University to be a welcoming place for all God's people, the Ames Scholarship Program intends to recruit and retain underrepresented students of color who have demonstrated significant community and/or church involvement. The primary aim of the scholarship is to equip future leaders with resources to impact their world for Christ.

1. Name _____
First Middle Last

Preferred Name Former Last Name

2. Address _____
Number and Street City

State Zip Code Country

3. Home Phone (_____) _____ For text updates: Cell Phone (_____) _____

Cell Phone Company _____

4. Email _____

5. Currently Enrolled at:

High School _____

College or University _____

6. What is your intended major at SPU? _____

7. Have you applied for admission to SPU? Yes No Have you applied for financial aid at SPU? Yes No

Scholarship Questionnaire

Please answer the following questions briefly on a separate page (1-2 pages per essay/question, double spaced):

- Describe how your cultural and ethnic background has shaped your life.
- Describe a meaningful leadership experience you've had (could be in community, school, home, or church).

Students applying to Seattle Pacific University are considered for the Ames Leadership Scholarship on the basis of their past experiences and willingness to be involved at SPU. Scholarship awards are renewable annually based upon meeting a minimum SPU grade point average. Students may be invited to campus to interview for this scholarship — details to be announced. Applications are due by February 15.

Mail: Fax: Email:

Director of Undergraduate Admissions
Seattle Pacific University
3307 Third Avenue West, Suite 115
Seattle, Washington, 98119-1922

(206) 281-2544

admissions@spu.edu