

NATHAN KESSLER-JEFFREY

October 11 – Present: Director of Education and Outreach, Taproot Theatre Company.

Oversee all education programs and touring productions. Responsible for departmental budget and earned revenue. Serve on mainstage production team as director and on season selection committee.

September 15 – December 15: Adjunct Faculty, Seattle Pacific University.

Part-time faculty for acting and directing.

December 12 – March 13: Guest Director, Driftwood Players.

June 09 – October 11: Director of Outreach, Taproot Theatre Company.

Oversaw all offsite touring programs. Served on mainstage production team as touring director and on season selection committee. Maintained departmental budget and earned revenue reports.

September 08 – October 08: Guest Director, American Globe Theatre.

August 07 – May 08: Jameson Project Producer, Mason Gross School of the Arts at Rutgers.

Directed and produced student productions.

April 06 – June 06: Directing Intern, Heart of America Shakespeare Festival.

January 06 – May 06: Adjunct Faculty, Calvary Bible College.

January 04 – December 05: Founding Artistic Director, Logos Theatre Company.

- Selected and produced two mainstage seasons of two productions each.
- Established community partnerships for rehearsal and performance space.
- Incorporated organization with intent to form 501(c)3.
- Shuttered company after acceptance to graduate school at Rutgers University.

June 03 – December 05: Office Manager, PriorityAdvantage.

May 03 – June 03: Guest Director, Abilene Shakespeare Festival.

August 02 – May 03: Directing and Literary Intern, Dallas Theater Center.

- Assisted directors during rehearsal
- Read script submissions, met with Dramaturg and Artistic Associate to discuss season selection

BFA Directing and Acting, Abilene Christian University, 2002. MFA Directing, MGSA at Rutgers University, 2009.