In addition to the signature above, the financial sponsor must mail a current bank statement or letter from an authorized bank official on bank stationery to document funds currently available for the first year of study. This document must be written in English and must be less than six months old. Please clearly write the applicant's name on the document and mail directly to the address below.

What is an acceptable bank statement?

Acceptable:

- An original bank statement in the sponsor's name, which states the date the account was opened, current balance, average deposits, and average balances. It is highly recommended that most of your financial support come from your home country, as this is important for getting your student visa. The bank statement should be sent to SPU by one of the three ways below.
- A letter sent directly from the financial sponsor's bank that describes the type of account, the date the account was opened, current balance, average deposits, and average balances. The letter should include the bank stamp or seal.
- An official letter of guarantee from your government or agency indicating your scholarship amount. The letter should be signed and dated. The date of the letter must not be more than six months old.

Not acceptable:

- Bank statements that do not indicate the student's name. If the account is not in your name, please be sure to write your name at the top of the statement so we can match it with your file!
- A bank letter indicating "good customer," "adequate funds," or "balance in the low six figures," and not indicating a current total account balance.
