

SPU Theatre: Props Handbook

A Section of Mackenzie Breda's Senior Project titled:
The Reconstruction of the SPU Theatre Props Inventory and Protocol

Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1: WHAT IS A PROPS MASTER	2
1. What is a Props Master?.....	2
2. What is my Job at SPU Theatre?.....	3
3. What other departments do I work with?.....	3
CHAPTER 2: WHAT ARE MY DAILY TASKS	4
1. What does a typical day as Props Master look like?.....	4
2. Planning for the Week	4
3. How to Prioritize Tasks	4
CHAPTER 3: THE PRODUCTION PROCESS: PREPRODUCTION AND REHEARSALS	6
1. Where do I start?.....	6
2. How do you manage the curation of props?	6
3. Who do I talk to get the information that I need?.....	6
CHAPTER 4: THE PRODUCTION PROCESS: TECH AND PERFORMANCES.....	9
1. How to set up props tracking.....	9
2. How to set up prop tables for performances.....	9
3. How to run props during performances.....	9
4. How to set someone else up to run props successfully	9
CHAPTER 5: PROP STORAGE AND INVENTORY	12
1. SPU Prop Storage.....	12
2. Shelf Labeling	12
3. Airtable	12
4. Inventorying a Prop.....	12
APPENDICES	14
1. Prop Storage and Airtable Paperwork	14
2. Production Paperwork.....	15
3. Rental Paperwork	16

Acknowledgements

Special Thanks to SPU students who made this project possible: Annika Nolen, Lani Ramirez, Ellie Duenow, Megan Merydith, Gillian McMichael, Maddy Langbell, and Lia Harper

Special Thanks to the SPU Theatre Faculty and Staff: Rick Lorig, Tucker Goodman, Shelby Lunderman, Candace Vance, Erica Manzano, Jordan Gerow, and Andrew Ryder

If you are interested in reading this handbook, please reach out to theatre@spu.edu
Do not distribute without permission.