Potential Metrics & Key Performance Indicators (KPIs)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Number of active alumni cohorts • Number of business practitioners participating and contributing with specialized cohorts • Increased contributions to academy, business and the church knowledge products e.g. case studies, articles, books. • Number of Seattle area B Corps and social purpose businesses with ongoing relationships with CFB and SBGE • Number of students interacting with EAB members and CFB around character, business and moral ethics • To host 2 events a year for students/alumni/staff/faculty, in partnership with the CFB Faith Integration and Business to engage with students/alumni/staff/faculty/local community
Discussion Questions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are the reasons you indicated interest in joining the Faith Integration committee? • How do you see the past work of this group laying the groundwork from which to build upon? What are easy wins for this work to build momentum? • During the next year, what is one thing you can commit to doing to help this committee succeed? (Prayer, introductions to B-Corps, help with event planning, running a small group at your church with the Faith & Co film, advertising upcoming courses via social media feed, crafting questions and themes for faith integration.)
