

SoulCare Leader Job Description 2022–23

SoulCare leaders are Christian undergraduate students who meet weekly with a small group of UFDN 1000 students to ask and answer the question, "How goes it with your soul?" Leaders are mentored by a seminarian and receive ongoing leadership training through a free* one-credit class (THEO 3780/4780). This position is a year-long commitment of up to 3-5 hours per week, and leaders are paid approximately $300 per quarter. *Free overload credit (if taking 19 or more credits).

Leader Responsibilities

1. Attend a pre-quarter Orientation, once per quarter
2. Register for and attend the weekly Leader Training class each quarter*
 - THEO 3780 (new leaders) - Autumn Quarter, Wednesdays, 5:30 – 6:30 pm
 - THEO 4780 (returning leaders) - Autumn Quarter, Wednesdays, 7:00 – 8:00 pm
3. Lead your Wesleyan Small Group:
 - Ask and discuss the question, "How goes it with your soul?"
 - Cultivate a safe and sacred space for all group members
 - Establish WSG Ground Rules and hold the group accountable to them
4. Track group attendance weekly via Canvas (by 3pm on Fridays)
5. Attend weekly mentor group meeting (TBD, scheduled with mentor)
6. Schedule 2 one-on-ones with mentor per quarter (1st one by week 5, 2nd one by week 9)
7. Complete feedback surveys
8. Complete and submit Banner timesheets
9. Be attentive to email communication
10. Maintain minimum 2.75 GPA

THEO 3780/4780 meets weekly as a class Autumn Quarter. In Winter and Spring Quarters, leaders register for THEO 4780 for the credit, although the class does not meet.*
