

Seattle Pacific University – Bertona Classrooms

The first modular building ever assembled on campus, this building contains six multi-purpose, high tech classrooms.

Building Facts:

- The Bertona Classrooms have one floor and are 8,000 square feet
- The total cost was $1,646,060 or $206 per square foot.
- Construction was completed in two phases over two years

Building Features:

- Modular building construction
- Building contains four large and two small classrooms
- Restroom
- High tech projectors and data infrastructure