

THURSDAY, AUGUST 8TH

2:00 pm – 5:00 pm	Registration	South lawn by Auditorium A
	Meet the staff and fellow students, and settle into your lodging arrangements.
6:00 pm	Dinner	Mess Hall B
7:00 pm	Welcome, introductions, announcements, and Whidbey pie dessert	Auditorium B
	Garrison Hall will be open tonight for drinks and mingling.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 9TH

8:00 am	Breakfast	Mess Hall B
8:30 am	Worship: Arthur Boers, Chaplain	Auditorium B
	Optional worship for students, faculty, and staff.
9:00 am	New Student Orientation	Auditorium B
	We would like to invite our incoming cohort to join us for a brief introduction to the program. Director Scott Cairns will present the philosophy of intersecting faith with craft, discipline, and vision. Assistant Director Dena Jones will show students how to register for classes and access student materials.
10:30 am	Mentor Meetings	Faculty Houses/Garrison
	Mentors will schedule one-on-one meetings with each student. If you do not have one scheduled during this time slot, this is free time.
12:00 pm	Lunch	Mess Hall B
1:00 pm	Mentor Meetings	Faculty Houses/Garrison
	Mentors will schedule one-on-one meetings with each student. If you do not have one scheduled during this time slot, this is free time.
5:00 pm	Winter 2020 Graduate Session	Scott's House #8
	Those of you who expect to graduate in Winter 2020, please bring your folders and join us for an informational session. We will discuss your upcoming final manuscript, the fifth quarter critical essay, and other graduation requirements.
6:00 pm	Dinner	Mess Hall B

7:00 pm

Plenary Faculty Reading

Auditorium B

Come listen to readings from Director Scott Cairns, our new poetry faculty member Karen Lee, and our new fiction faculty member Chigozie Obioma.

Garrison Hall will be open tonight.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 10TH

8:00 am

Breakfast

Mess Hall B

8:30 am

Worship: Arthur Boers, Chaplain

Auditorium B

Optional worship for students, faculty, and staff.

9:00 am

Art and Faith: Lauren Winner

Auditorium B

A theological and cultural overview of the relationship between the arts and religion, grounded in the tradition of religious humanism. As part of the required Common Readings, Creative Nonfiction mentor Lauren Winner will be discussing Chaim Potok's My Name Is Asher Lev today.

10:30 am

Craft Seminar: Jericho Brown

Auditorium B

You will attend three 90-minute craft seminars during the residency. Today we welcome Jericho Brown as our visiting poetry lecturer. Visiting faculty may have asked you to prepare for the seminar with a reading beforehand.

12:00 pm

Lunch

Mess Hall B

Faculty meeting at Scott's house #8 during lunch.

1:30 pm

Workshops

Faculty Houses/Garrison

Workshop groups are divided by first- and second-year students and will be led by the corresponding faculty mentor in their genre. Graduating students will collaborate in an independently run mixed-genre workshop.

4:30 pm

Poetry Reading: Jericho Brown

Auditorium B

Come listen to readings from visiting faculty member Jericho Brown.

6:00 pm

Dinner

Mess Hall B

Garrison Hall will be open tonight.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 11TH

8:00 am Breakfast Mess Hall B

8:30 am Worship followed by Eucharist Auditorium B

Optional worship for students, faculty, and staff.

Free morning to attend churches in Coupeville area or in Port Townsend.

8:45 am/9:30 am boats out. 12:30 pm/1:15 pm boats in.

12:00 pm Lunch Mess Hall B

2:00 pm Art and Faith: Lauren Winner Auditorium A

A theological and cultural overview of the relationship between the arts and religion, grounded in the tradition of religious humanism. As part of the required Common Readings, Creative Nonfiction mentor Lauren Winner will be discussing Chaim Potok's My Name Is Asher Lev today.

3:30 pm Workshops Faculty Houses/Garrison

Workshop groups are divided by first- and second-year students and will be led by the corresponding faculty mentor in their genre. Graduating students will collaborate in an independently run mixed-genre workshop.

6:00 pm Dinner Mess Hall B

7:30 pm Student Readings Garrison Hall

Students have the opportunity to share their work across genres and without criticism.

Sign up during the residency or decide spur of the moment to share!

Garrison Hall will be open tonight.

MONDAY, AUGUST 12TH

8:00 am Breakfast Mess Hall B

8:30 am Worship: Arthur Boers, Chaplain Auditorium A

Optional worship for students, faculty, and staff.

9:00 am Art and Faith: Robert Clark Auditorium A

A theological and cultural overview of the relationship between the arts and religion, grounded in the tradition of religious humanism. As part of the required Common Readings, Fiction mentor Robert Clark will be discussing Rose Macaulay's The Towers of Trebizond today.

10:30 am Craft Seminar: Bret Lott Auditorium A

You will attend three 90-minute craft seminars during the residency. Today we welcome Bret Lott as our visiting fiction lecturer. Visiting faculty may have asked you to prepare for the seminar with a reading beforehand.

12:00 pm Lunch Mess Hall B

1:30 pm Workshops Faculty Houses/Garrison

Workshop groups are divided by first- and second-year students and will be led by the corresponding faculty mentor in their genre. Graduating students will collaborate in an independently run mixed-genre workshop.

4:30 pm Fiction and Creative Nonfiction Reading: Bret Lott Auditorium A

Come listen to readings from visiting faculty member Bret Lott.

6:00 pm Dinner Mess Hall B

Garrison will be open tonight.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 13TH FREE DAY

8:00 am Breakfast Mess Hall B

Boxed lunches can be picked up in Mess Hall B.

Take a walk in the Fort Casey State Park, head over to Coupeville, Oak Harbor or Port Townsend for a day at the shops, check out the nearby lighthouse, take a boat tour around Deception Pass, or drive down to scenic Greenbank Farms.

6:00 pm Dinner Mess Hall B

7:30 pm Student Readings Garrison Hall

Students have the opportunity to share their work across genres and without criticism. Sign up during the residency or decide spur of the moment to share!

Garrison Hall will be open tonight.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 14TH

8:00 am	Breakfast	Mess Hall B
8:30 am	Worship: Arthur Boers, Chaplain	Auditorium A
	Optional worship for students, faculty, and staff.
9:00 am	Art and Faith: Bruce Beasley	Auditorium A
	A theological and cultural overview of the relationship between the arts and religion, grounded in the tradition of religious humanism. As part of the required Common Readings, visiting faculty member Bruce Beasley will be discussing Emily Dickinson's poetry.
10:30 am	Craft Seminar: Bret Lott	Auditorium A
	You will attend three 90-minute craft seminars during the residency. Today we welcome Bret Lott as our visiting creative nonfiction lecturer. Visiting faculty may have asked you to prepare for the seminar with a reading beforehand.
12:00 pm	Lunch	Mess Hall B
	Faculty meeting at Scott's house #8 during lunch.
1:30 pm	Workshops	Faculty Houses/Garrison
	Workshop groups are divided by first- and second-year students and will be led by the corresponding faculty mentor in their genre. Graduating students will collaborate in an independently run mixed-genre workshop.
4:30 pm	Craft Talk: Susanne Antonetta	Auditorium A
	Have a question about publishing? Creative Nonfiction mentor Susanne Antonetta will talk about creating a healthy publishing plan for yourself, identifying markets, and how to think about building a book and finding a home for it.
6:00 pm	Dinner	Mess Hall B
7:30 pm	Bonfire	Colonel's Firepit
	Garrison Hall will be open tonight.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 15TH

8:00 am	Breakfast	Mess Hall B
8:30 am	Worship: Arthur Boers, Chaplain	Auditorium A
	Optional worship for students, faculty, and staff.

9:00 am Art and Faith: Bruce Beasley Auditorium A

A theological and cultural overview of the relationship between the arts and religion, grounded in the tradition of religious humanism. As part of the required Common Readings, visiting faculty member Bruce Beasley will be discussing Emily Dickinson's poetry.

10:30 am Mentor Meetings Faculty Houses/Garrison

*Mentors will schedule one-on-one meetings with each student.
If you do not have one scheduled during this time slot, this is free time.*

12:00 pm Lunch Mess Hall B

Graduating students are invited to join Scott and Dena for lunch at Scott's house #8, followed by graduation rehearsal.

1:00 pm Mentor Meetings Faculty Houses/Garrison

*Mentors will schedule one-on-one meetings with each student.
If you do not have one scheduled during this time slot, this is free time.*

3:30 pm Workshops Faculty Houses/Garrison

Workshop groups are divided by first- and second-year students and will be led by the corresponding faculty mentor in their genre. Graduating students will collaborate in an independently run mixed-genre workshop.

6:00 pm Dinner Mess Hall B

7:30 pm Student Readings Garrison Hall

*Students have the opportunity to share their work across genres and without criticism.
Sign up during the residency or decide spur of the moment to share!*

Garrison Hall will be open tonight.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 16TH

8:00 am Breakfast Mess Hall B

8:30 am Worship: Arthur Boers, Chaplain Auditorium A

Optional worship for students, faculty, and staff.

9:00 am Art and Faith: Bruce Beasley Auditorium A

A theological and cultural overview of the relationship between the arts and religion, grounded in the tradition of religious humanism. As part of the required Common Readings, visiting faculty member Bruce Beasley will be discussing Emily Dickinson's poetry.

10:30 am Mentor Meetings Faculty Houses/Garrison

*Mentors will schedule one-on-one meetings with each student.
If you do not have one scheduled during this time slot, this is free time.*

12:00 pm Lunch Doctor's House Tent

1:30 pm Graduate Readings followed by Group Photo Auditorium A

Graduating students will be reading sections of their final manuscripts. Family and friends are welcomed to hear the culmination of the students' work.

4:30 pm Farewell Readings Auditorium A

Come join us in celebrating our mentors Gina Ochsner and Jeanne Murray Walker and their work.

6:00 pm Dinner Doctor's House Tent

7:30 pm Poetry Contest Garrison Hall

A night of skits, childhood work, songs, absurdity, and laughter. Sign up during the residency to perform.

Garrison Hall will be open tonight.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 17TH

8:00 am Breakfast Doctor's House Tent

8:30 am Worship: Arthur Boers, Chaplain Auditorium A

Optional worship for students, faculty, and staff.

9:00 am Mentor Meetings Faculty Houses/Garrison

*Mentors will schedule one-on-one meetings with each student.
If you do not have one scheduled during this time slot, this is free time.*

10:30 am Graduate Readings Auditorium A

Graduating students will be reading sections of their final manuscripts. Family and friends are welcomed to hear the culmination of the students' work.

12:00 pm Lunch Doctor's House Tent

1:30 pm Graduate Readings Auditorium A

Graduating students will be reading sections of their final manuscripts. Family and friends are welcomed to hear the culmination of the students' work.

4:00 pm Graduation Ceremony Auditorium A

5:00 pm

Graduation Reception

Doctor's House Tent

Please join us for a tented event with drinks and hors d'oeuvres.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 18TH

8:00 am

Breakfast

Doctor's House Tent

4:10 am

First shuttle departure

10:00 am

Checkout time: Camp Casey

11:00 am

Checkout time: Fort Casey Inn

12:30 am

Final shuttle departure