Evidence of Financial Support

U.S. Department of Homeland Security requires that Seattle Pacific University verify the financial resources of all international students. To be eligible for the F-1 student visa status, applicants must work with their financial sponsor to demonstrate sufficient financial resources that meet or exceed the estimated educational and living expenses. Please note the estimated costs listed on the back of this form are for one academic year (four quarters). Adequate documented financial support is required for admission decisions and issuance of the Form I-20.

Bank Statement

In addition to the signature above, the financial sponsor must mail a current bank statement or letter from an authorized bank official on bank stationery to document funds currently available for the first year of study. This document must be written in English and the funds must be described in U.S. dollars. All documents must be less than six months old. Please clearly label the applicant's name on the document and mail directly to the address below.

What is an acceptable bank statement?

Acceptable:

- An original bank statement in the sponsor's name, which states the date the account was opened, current balance in U.S. dollars, average deposits, and average balances. It is highly recommended that most of your financial support come from your home country, as this is important for getting your student visa. The bank statement must show liquid assets such as cash deposits, certificates of deposit, saving accounts, etc. and be sent to SPU directly from the bank in a sealed envelope.
- A letter sent directly from the financial sponsor's bank that describes the type of account, the date the account was opened, current balance in U.S. dollars, average deposits, and average balances. The letter should include the bank stamp or seal.
- An official letter of guarantee from your government or agency indicating your scholarship amount in U.S. dollars. The letter should be signed and dated and the date of the letter must not be more than one year old.

Not acceptable:

- Photocopies or faxes of bank letters or bank statements.
- A bank letter indicating "good" customer or "adequate funds," and not indicating a current total account balance.
