SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY SCHOLARSHIPS - ELIGIBILITY INFORMATION

Each year, the School of Theology nominates returning students for financial assistance from a variety of scholarship funds. The eligibility requirements for each scholarship are outlined below. Check only those that you both meet the qualifications for and wish to be considered to receive. This information is required to process your application request.

- Harry and Lois Anstead Missionary Scholarship: Students preparing to be Free Methodist career missionaries or children of Free Methodist career missionaries.
- Lowell Berry Memorial Scholarship: Students who are financially needy and have a minimum 2.5 ongoing GPA that have demonstrated a genuine interest in evangelism and are involved in a study program that has world evangelism and revitalization of the local church ministry as its objective.
- Tony and Thelma Bettencourt Christian Scholarship: Students seriously preparing themselves for some form of full-time Christian ministry. Preference given to those who have demonstrated this by their course selection and extra-curricular involvement.
- Elvis and Gordon Cochrane Scholarship: Students majoring in either Theology or Sociology. It is specifically agreed that the even year recipients of this scholarship will be awarded by Theology and that the odd year recipients will be awarded by Sociology.
- Charles Fogg Scholarship: Students with a life goal of pastoral ministry.
- Charlotte A. Forslund Scholarship Endowment: Awarded to students with an interest in children's ministry.
- Crete Hammersla Christian Service Scholarship: Theology majors with demonstrated financial need who are preparing for full-time Christian service.
- Haslam Family Christian Ministries Scholarship: Students preparing to serve as missionaries, pastors or in other Christian service careers.
- Lawrence and Mary Hawley Free Methodist Ministry Scholarship: Students preparing for professional ministry within the Free Methodist Church
