

JOE VISCOM

joeviscom.com
linkedin.com/in/joeviscom
hello@joeviscom.com
(206) 478-6103
Seattle, WA

Skills

- Strong Eye for Design cultivated through marketing campaigns at the Career Center at SPU
- Proficient in Adobe Creative Suite including After Effects and Premiere
- Ability to remain calm under pressure demonstrated by working 20 hours a week in school
- Fluent in conversational Mandarin Chinese
- Cultural Awareness demonstrated by mission trips every summer to various countries for the last 5 years

Education

Bachelor of Arts in Visual Communication, Seattle Pacific University, Seattle WA
June 2019

- Minors: New Media Studies and Art History
- Awarded Trustee's Scholar Award and Phillip W. Eaton Scholarship

Experience

Graphic Designer/Peer Career Advisor, Center for Career and Calling, Seattle WA
September 2015 - June 2019

- Designed print and online media to promote events and programs
- Worked with a team of 5+ individuals to come up with creative and successful marketing strategies
- Facilitated conversations on career potential between students and successful local professionals to create mentorship relationships to help guide career development
- Advised students on career professionalism by editing resumes, cover letters and assisting with mock interviews on a 1:1 basis
- Presented on the services of the career center to audiences of up to 150

Designer, Cascade Yearbook, Seattle Pacific University, Seattle WA
September 2015 - June 2016

- Collaborated with photographers and editors to create exciting page layouts
- Developed a comprehensive university publication

Design and Research Assistant, Seattle Pacific University, Seattle WA
January 2015, April 2015

- Worked with 2 faculty members to design an environmentally sustainable rural community
- Created detailed site planning layouts for potential rural communities
- Presented at the 2015 Spokane Intercollegiate Research Conference the community plan