Quaker Voluntary Service

Social Assistance

Zenaida Peterson, recruitment@quakervoluntaryservice.org
<https://www.quakervoluntaryservice.org/>

Quaker Voluntary Service is an 11-month experiment, living at the intersection of transformational spirituality and activism happening in houses in Atlanta, Boston, Minneapolis, Philadelphia and Portland. Young adults work full-time in professional positions at community-based organizations addressing a wide range of issues, while living in a cooperative house and worshipping with, and being mentored by, local Quakers. They receive housing, transportation, food, health insurance, and a small stipend, while engaging in regular self-led workshops and retreats that allow for continuing education in social justice, faith, and community building topics.
