John Perkins Center Writing Prize - 2019 Entry Form Continued

CONSENT AND LICENSE STATEMENTS

All entrants in the John Perkins Center Writing Prize Competition are required to affirm the statements below. The John Perkins Center (JPC) at Seattle Pacific University (SPU) is hosting this competition and will determine the eligibility of individual entrants and the winners of the competition.

Consent to publish and use submitted work: By signing below, I give consent to the JPC and SPU to use, publish, reproduce, and distribute all or any part of the written submission, the project developed, and the findings contained therein, in any manner and at any time, in the JPC's and SPU's sole discretion. I hereby waive all claims for compensation for the use and publication of all or any part of the written submission by the JPC and SPU. I permit the JPC and SPU to identify me as the author of the submission using my first and last name. I understand that the JPC and SPU are not obligated to publish or use any part of my submission. The license I grant to the JPC and SPU regarding my written submission is perpetual, world-wide, irrevocable, nonexclusive, and royalty-free. This paragraph applies regardless of whether I am one of the winners of the competition.

Original Work: By signing below, I pledge that the written submission is an original written work produced by the entrant named on this form and does not violate the copyright or other proprietary rights of any other person.

Scholarship Eligibility: I understand the scholarship will be divided over three quarters (fall, winter, and spring). I understand that I must be enrolled full-time (12+ credits) each quarter to receive the scholarship. I understand that the scholarship award is a grant and is strictly a scholarship to SPU for the 2019-2020 academic year applied to tuition fees. I agree to forfeit and release all rights to the scholarship award if I fail to, for whatever reason, matriculate in a degree program at SPU in the 2019-2020 academic year. I also agree to forfeit any remaining and unused scholarship award should I withdraw from SPU during the 2019-2020 academic year. I understand that this scholarship is not transferable or refundable.

Parental/guardian agreement (if under 18 years old): An entrant under 18 years old must also have their parent or legal guardian sign. By signing below, the entrant's parent or legal guardian agrees to all of the terms of this document on behalf of the entrant and each of the entrant's parents and legal guardians, to the maximum extent permitted by law.
