DECLARATION OF INTERNATIONAL STUDENT FINANCES (GRADUATE FORM)

International students seeking admission to Seattle Pacific University and eligibility for F-1 student status must submit the Declaration of International Student Finances form and all checklist items outlined below. SPU will issue the Form I-20 after granting the student admission and after receiving all checklist items from the student. Respond clearly and completely to each of the following questions.

CHECKLIST FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

- Complete the Declaration of International Student Finances form.
- Identify a financial sponsor and have them complete, sign, and date the sponsor’s section of this application form (sponsor’s signature must be original).
- Request that your financial sponsor submit an official copy of his or her bank statements to verify funds available.
- Include a photocopy of student’s passport identification page(s) with this form.

EVIDENCE OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT

U.S. Department of Homeland Security requires that Seattle Pacific University verify the financial resources of all international students. To be eligible for the F-1 student visa status, applicants must work with their financial sponsor to demonstrate sufficient financial resources that meet or exceed the estimated educational and living expenses. Note that the estimated costs listed on page 3 of this form are for one academic year (four quarters). SPU requires adequate documented financial support for admission decisions and issuance of the Form I-20.

STATEMENT OF RESPONSIBILITY

This is to certify that the statements made on the declaration of finances are true and that these funds are available and will be provided as indicated to support the student while they are attending Seattle Pacific University. Funding is to include tuition, living expenses, books, supplies, fees, personal expenses, and health insurance as indicated on page 3. I understand that an incomplete declaration will not be accepted.

BANK STATEMENT

In addition to the signature above, the financial sponsor must mail a current bank statement or letter from an authorized bank official on bank stationery to document funds currently available for the first year of study. This document must be written in English and must be less than six months old. Clearly label the applicant's name on the document and mail directly to the address listed on page 4.

What is an acceptable bank statement?

Acceptable:

- An original bank statement in the sponsor's name, which states the date the account was opened, current balance in U.S. dollars, average deposits, and average balances. It is highly recommended that most of your financial support come from your home country, as this is important for getting your student visa. The bank statement must show liquid assets such as cash deposits, certificates of deposit, or saving account.
- A letter sent directly from the financial sponsor's bank that describes the type of account, the date the account was opened, current balance in U.S. dollars, average deposits, and average balances. The letter should include the bank stamp or seal.
- An official letter of guarantee from your government or agency indicating your scholarship amount in U.S. dollars. The letter should be signed and dated and the date of the letter must not be more than six months old.

Not acceptable:

- Bank statements that do not indicate the student's name.
- A bank letter indicating "good customer" or "adequate funds", and not indicating a current total account balance.
