Direct Admission to the Major upon Admission to the University

Only about 10% of high achieving transfer students are admitted through direct admission each year. Most transfer students successfully go through the regular admission process after transferring (see section below). Transfer Direct Admission requires that you meet all of the criteria below:

- Completion of 90 college-level credits or approved DTA associate degree
- Minimum cumulative college-level GPA of 3.0 in both general coursework and prerequisites
- Completion of at least 2 lower division core courses in the major

Regular Admission to the Major after Transfer

Students are admitted to the major annually, during winter quarter. Autumn quarter admits not directly admitted to the Business Administration major can still apply in their first year at SPU. Winter and spring admits apply the following year. Students admitted annually is limited by capacity. To be considered you must have:

- Sophomore standing (45 credits)
- At least 15 credits in BUS, ACCT, and ECN courses at SPU (10 credits if you transfer with 90+ credits)
- 2.70 major GPA at SPU and 2.70 cumulative GPA; or a 3.0 major GPA at SPU.
